

A Chicken is Food for a Cat

pure

► adjective

1. Not mixed, free of dirt, or pollution, e.g. Drink this water, it is pure.
2. Of unmixed blood or ancestry, e.g. This is a pure bred dog.

lure

► noun

- Live or artificial bait used in fishing or trapping, e.g. I used a lure to catch the fish.
- Attraction, e.g. The lure of your cooking is too much for me, I cannot keep out of the kitchen.

► verb (used with an object) lured, luring

- To attract, or tempt, e.g. The smell of your cooking is luring me into the kitchen

cure

► noun

- An effective medicine, e.g. The cure for cancer has not been found yet.

► verb

- To restore to good health; to relieve from a disease, e.g. Drinking ginger tea cured her cold, If you eat amla, it will cure your tiredness.

secure

► adjective

- Safe, protected, e.g. I keep my money in this safety deposit box to keep it secure.

manure

► noun

1. Animal stool, especially that of common domestic farm animals like cows, horses, sheep, pigs and chickens, e.g. Put some cow manure on your tulsi plants and they will grow nicely.

happen

► verb

1. To occur or take place, e.g. Let me tell you how the accident happened.
2. To occur unexpectedly or by chance, e.g. Be careful, if he happens to come home early, he will find out about the surprise party.

maiden

► noun

1. [uncommon] A girl or an unmarried young woman, e.g. Many young maidens came to the ball to try to marry the prince.
2. [in cricket] A maiden over, e.g. A maiden over is an over where no runs are scored.

seven

► noun

- The number 7, e.g. He wrote the number seven on the paper.

kitten

► noun

1. A young cat, e.g. The kittens were playing with the ball of wool.
2. The young of other animals such as rabbit, rat, hedgehog, squirrel, fox, beaver or badger, e.g. The rabbit had six kittens.

mitten

► Noun

1. A type of glove that covers a hand with a separate sheath for the thumb, but not for other fingers, e.g. It is cold today, please wear your mittens.

vixen

► noun

A female fox, e.g. The fox and the vixen went into their hole.

chicken

► noun

1. A domestic bird, e.g. The chickens were pecking the seeds.
2. The meat from this bird eaten as food, e.g. Cats and some people like to eat chicken.
3. A coward, e.g. Don't be a chicken! It is not too cold! Let's go for a swim.

linen

► collective noun

- Domestic cloths, such as tablecloths, bedding, towels (etc) that are made from thick cotton or linen, e.g. She put the freshly washed linen into the linen closet.

ox

► noun

(plural 'oxen')

- An adult bull that cannot bear children, e.g. The ox were pulling the cart.

sudden

► adverb

- Happening quickly and with little or no warning, e.g. There was a sudden flash of lightening; The sudden drop in temperature left everyone cold and confused; His decision to leave school was sudden.

► adjective

- Quickly and with little or no warning, e.g. The earthquake was sudden, there was no warning.

her

► possessive pronoun

- Belonging to a girl or woman, e.g. This is her book.

matter

► noun

1 Physical substance, things we can touch, e.g. Our bodies are made of matter, but Krishna's body is not.

2 A condition, subject or affair, especially one of concern, e.g. What's the matter?

fat

► adjective

(comparative 'fatter', superlative 'fattest')

- Carrying a larger than normal amount of weight on one's body, e.g. The fat man had trouble getting through the door.

banner

► noun

- Any large sign, especially if constructed of fabric, e.g. The mayor hung a banner across Main Street to commemorate the town's 100th anniversary.

manner

► noun

- A way of acting, conducting, carrying one's self, style, e.g. His manner makes us believe that he is the boss.; He has a nice manner; His manner is a little rough, but he is a good man.
- (used as plural i.e. 'manners') Politeness, e.g. These children are not polite, no one has taught them manners; It is good manners to say please and thank you.
- Sort; kind; style, e.g. All manner of persons visit Vrindavan.

Say Please and Thank You

Be Polite

Raise Your Hand

Follow Rules

Share with Others

Take Turns

hammer

► noun

- A tool with a heavy head and a handle, used for hitting nails, e.g. Have you seen my hammer?

► verb

- To hit repeatedly with a hammer, e.g. He is hammering the nails into the wood.

gather

► verb

1. To collect, e.g. I've been gathering ideas from the people I work with; Please gather all your friends together and ask them to come to the party; We went to gather some blackberries from the nearby lane.

2. To come close, or assemble, e.g. People gathered round as he began to tell his story.
3. To guess, e.g. From his silence, I gathered that things had not gone well; I gather from Aunt May that you had a good day at the match.

rather

► adverb

1. Prefer, e.g. If you don't mind, I would rather not go. I'd rather go to school than go to the cricket match; I'd like this one rather than that one, I'd rather be with you than him.
2. Somewhat, a little bit, e.g. This melon is rather tasteless, especially compared to the one we had last time.

ladder

► noun

1. Movable steps for climbing, e.g. The painter climbed up the ladder; Be careful when you climb ladders.

after

► preposition

1. Following in time; later than, e.g. We have English reading class after lunch; Run after him (i.e. Try to catch him)
2. Seeking, e.g. He's after a job; My mum is after me, I need to hide.

better

► adjective (comparative 'good', 'better', 'best')

- e.g. You sing it, you are a better singer than me; I am better at cricket than you.

► verb

- (transitive) To improve, e.g. Try to do better in the next exam.

letter

► noun

1. A symbol in an alphabet, e.g. There are 26 letters in the English alphabet.
2. A written message, e.g. I wrote a letter to my sister.

ever

► adverb

1. By chance, e.g. If that ever happens, we're in deep trouble; If the principal ever sees you speaking Hindi in English class, he will shout at you.
2. In any way, possibly, e.g. How can I ever get there in time? How can I ever afford to buy a house?

never

► adverb

1. Not ever, e.g. I have never seen him at the school; I will never tell; I never want to hear you tell a lie.

waiter

► noun

1. A male worker who serves customers in a restaurant, e.g. Waiter, come here! There's a fly in my soup; I got a job as a waiter at Wholesome restaurant.

bitter

► adjective

1. Having a strong and unpleasant taste, e.g. The gourd was bitter.
2. Hateful or hostile, resentful, e.g. They're bitter enemies; I've been bitter ever since that defeat.

litter

► noun

1. The offspring of a mammal born at one time, e.g. There were six kittens in the cat's litter.
2. (uncountable) Collectively, items discarded on the ground, e.g. It makes me sad when I see litter in the holy river Yamuna.

► verb

1. (intransitive) To drop or throw litter (garbage) on the ground, e.g. Do not litter! Littering is bad for the environment.

dinner

► noun

- An evening meal, e.g. The family sat down to dinner; What would you like for dinner? They are eating rice and vegetables for dinner.

thin

► verb

(transitive) To make thin or thinner

► adjective (comparative 'thinner', superlative 'thinnest')

1. Having little body fat, e.g. He is very thin.
2. Having little thickness, e.g. This sweater is too thin, wear a thicker one.

liver

► noun

- A large organ in the body that cleans the blood, e.g. Some people get stones in their liver.

river

► noun

- A large stream, e.g. We went for a bath in the river Yamuna.

shiver

► verb

- To tremble or shake, especially when cold or frightened, e.g. They stood outside for hours, shivering in the frosty air.

► noun

- The act or result of shivering, e.g. A shiver went up my spine when he told me about his near-death experience.

silver

► noun

- A gray metal, e.g. I have a silver anklet.

► adjective

- Having a color like silver, a shiny gray, e.g. He has a silver car.

sister

► noun

1. A female sibling, e.g. My sister is always driving me crazy.
2. A nun, e.g. Michelle left behind her bank job and became a sister in the catholic church.

winter

► noun

1. The cold season, e.g. I don't like winter, I prefer the heat.

singer

► noun

1. A person who sings, is able to sing, or earns a living by singing, e.g. He is a good singer; John Lennon was a singer in a band called 'The Beatles'.

copper

► noun

- A reddish-brown metal, e.g. We use this copper jug for poojas.

robber

► noun

1. A person who robs, a thief, e.g. A robber broke into our house and stole our gas cylinders.

rob

► verb (rob, robbing, robbed, has robbed)

- To steal from, especially using force or violence, e.g. The bank robbers robbed three banks before they were caught; Do not walk on the street alone at night, you might get robbed.

rocker

► noun

1. A rocking chair, e.g. The old man was sitting in his rocker.
2. A cradle for a baby, e.g. The baby was lying in his rocker.
3. Someone passionate about rock music, e.g. He is a punk rocker!

boxer

► noun

1. A fighter in a boxing match, e.g. People who do boxing are called boxers.
2. A breed of dog, e.g. I like boxer dogs.

bother

► verb

1. (transitive) To annoy, to disturb, to irritate, e.g. Would it bother you if I smoked? He bothers me! His attitude bothers me!
2. (intransitive) To make an effort e.g. Why do I even bother to study? I will fail the exam anyway; You didn't even bother to close the door; You didn't bother to ask me if I would like to come.

power

► noun

1. Physical force or strength, e.g. Superman has the power to destroy evil; Krishna has the most power.
2. Electricity or a supply of electricity, e.g. Is the power on? The power has gone out, please light a candle.

tower

► noun

1. A tall building, e.g. From the top of the tower we could see the whole city; There is a mobile phone tower near the temple.

powder

► noun

- Fine particles, e.g. Put some powder on your neck; Put some turmeric powder into the vegetables.

longer

► adjective

- comparative form of long (long, longer, longest) e.g. This piece of rope is longer than that one.

long

► Adjective

- Opposite of short, e.g. A year is a long time, a minute is a short time.

► Adverb

1. For a particular duration, e.g. How long will it be until the next bus arrives; How long will the interview take?
2. A large amount of time, e.g. Why do you take so long to have a bath? Will this interview take long? Hurry up, you are taking too long!

©BNP Design Studio * www.ClipartOf.com/1071009

gutter

► noun

1. A long hole along the road where water drains, e.g. The water was running in the gutter.
2. A channel to collect rain from the roof of a building, e.g. We need to clean the leaves out of the gutter.

butter

► noun

- Milk fat, e.g. After churning cream, we get butter.

► verb

- (transitive) To spread butter on, e.g. Please butter the toast.

summer

► noun

- The hot season, e.g. The summer in Vrindavan is too hot! We get holidays in summer.

supper

► noun

1. A snack before going to bed, e.g. Have some milk and biscuits for supper.
2. (in England) Dinner, e.g. What did you have for supper today?

rubber

► noun

1. A soft material used for making bathroom slippers etc, e.g. I want rubber slippers, not plastic ones; Rubber is softer than plastic; Rubber is made from the sap of rubber trees.
2. An eraser, e.g. Use a rubber to rub out this letter, it is wrong.

